ORGANIZATION OF MAIN ADMINISTRATION FOR ROADS -- Sofia, Sbornik Postanovleniya i Razporezhvaniya, No 5, May 53

According to Regulation No 618 of the Council of Ministers, the Main Administration for Roads, attached to the Council of Ministers, was created by Decree No P-992 of the Council of Ministers, dated 24 December 1952.

[This administration presumably took over the functions, with respect to roads, of the former Ministry of Construction and Roads, which has been re-named the Ministry of Construction.]

This administration manages and controls the work of its units in connection with planning, building, and maintaining roads in the country. The chief of the administration is designated by the Council of Ministers. He is assisted by deputy chiefs who are designated by the Council of Ministers on the recommendation of the chief. The chief hires and dismisses employees of the Main Administration for Roads and of okoliya and okrug administrations for roads, managers and their deputies and accountants of enterprises and associations, and managers of the Planning Organization (Proektanska organizatsiya).

An advisory organ, the kolegiya, is established within the Main Administration for Roads. Its members are designated by the Council of Ministers, on the recommendation of the chief of the administration.

In accordance with the Ruling for Capital Construction, a council of experts is established within the Main Administration for Roads. The members of this council are designated by the chief of the administration.

ORGANIZATION OF CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION FOR STATISTICS -- Sofia, Sbornik Postanovleniya i Razporezhvaniya, No 3, Mar 53

According to Decree No 108 of the Council of Ministers, the Central Administration for Statistics (Tsentralno statisticheskoe upravlenie) will have inspectorates in all rayons of Sofia; okoliya and city statistics services will be changed to inspectorates; and okrug statistics sections will be changed to okrug statistics administrations.

To improve statistical methods, a ten-member scientific and methodological council will be established. It will consist of leading workers of the Central Administration for Statistics, scientists of higher educational institutions, and representatives of various ministries.

ORGANIZATION OF STATE PLANNING COMMISSION -- Sofia, Sbornik Postanovleniya i Razporezhvaniya, No 4, Apr 53

In accordance with Ukase No 180 of the Presidium of the People's Assembly, the State Planning Commission consists of a chairman, vice-chairmen, and members. The chairman must be a member of the government, the vice-chairmen are designated by the Presidium of the People's Assembly on the suggestion of the Council of Ministers, and the members are designated by the Council of Ministers.

The central apparatus of the commission consists of an administration, departments (sektor), sections (otdel), and services (sluzhba). The commission is in charge of inspecting the harvest, and heads the Institute for Rationalization and the Bureau for Scientific and Technical Cooperation (Byuro za nauchno-tekhnicheskoe sotrudnichestvo).
